

Crime Free Multi-Housing Train the Trainer

If your agency has a Crime Free Multi-Housing Program or is interested in starting one, this training is for you. Any agency that needs more instructors for Crime Free, has added more members to their Crime Free Unit, has a new Crime Free Coordinator taking over the unit or is interested in starting the program from scratch must complete this 2-day Train the Trainer course. This mandatory training has limited seats and is only hosted twice a year.

This program is nationally and internationally used to help law enforcement agencies work cooperatively with their rental communities to reduce instances of crime, calls for service, and nuisance. Students will be certified to implement, teach and supervise their Crime Free Multi-Housing program.

Topics to be covered:

- Instructing landlords on the court system
- Applicant screening
- Abatement
- Crime Free Lease Addendum
- Active property management
- Developing a crime prevention approach
- C.P.T.E.D. (Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design) education
- Federal Fair Housing Laws/ JHO/ RLTO

This course is hosted by the Illinois Crime Free Association. In addition to the 2 full days of training, attendees will be certified by the International Crime Free Association to use the copyright of the Crime Free Program, they will receive all the copyrighted materials, and receive automatic membership in association for the remainder of 2024.
